IMPERIAL JAPANESE COMMISSION TO THE WORLD'S FAIR

For Our Readers

The Lousiana Purchase Exposition **

Now open at St. Louis is destined to prove the most remarkable undertaking in the history of American civilization and progress. Whether from a historical, industrial, artistic, or educational view point, the results of this stupendous National and international assemblage will be far-reaching and profound. Its wonders and its beauties will be told about and dwelt upon when men and women now young are old. It will prove the event of a lifetime-of a century destined to be big with events. It will be by far and in every way, the greatest of expositions, and many years must elapse before even the occasion for such another can present itself.

It will, therefore, be a pleasure, almost a duty, for every intelligent man and woman to know this great World's Fair as it really is, and every one of our readers may be able to thus know it, through that
